SOLAR SYSTEM INSTALLMENT SALE AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered into this _____ by and between Hello Solar (hereinafter known as "Company") and [Client's Name] (hereinafter known as "Client").

A. The Project: _____ to be installed at:
_____

B. Scope of Installation Services. Installation services shall include services as per the agreed project scope.
C. Fees and Payment Terms. The Client agrees to purchase the solar system through the installment arrangement agreed upon with Hello Solar.

- Monthly Payments:
  - Client agrees to a _____ (monthly plan) Solar Installment Agreement with a fixed monthly fee
  - Upfront fee upon contract signing: PHP_____ Down Payment
  - Payments will be made to Hello Solar monthly over _____(no. of months)
  - Client may make payments through the payment channels designated by HELLO SOLAR
  - HELLO SOLAR shall provide appropriate receipts and account statements.
- Non Payment:
  - If the Client fails to make payments from the due date, Hello Solar reserves the right to remotely shut down the solar PV system until the due payments are made. This action will be taken in accordance with local laws and regulations.
  - Continuous non-payments will allow Hello Solar to terminate or demobilize the system. Further, any costs incurred by Hello Solar due to the non-payment, including but not limited to system maintenance and administrative fees, will be billed to the Client.
- Distribution Utility's Implementation:
  - In the event the Client is disconnected from the Solar Power system due to non-payment or any other reason, the distribution utility may still follow its own implementation regarding non-payment. The Client is responsible for any charges or consequences imposed by the distribution utility in such cases.
- Damages:
  - In the event the client damages the system whether intentionally or accidentally, repair fees will be billed to the client.
- Ownership:
  - HELLO SOLAR retains ownership of the complete solar system declared in Schedule A until the Customer has paid the full amount due under this Agreement.
  - Once HELLO SOLAR has received the full amount legally due under this Agreement, including any properly disclosed and lawful charges, ownership of the solar equipment shall automatically transfer to the Customer without a separate buyout payment.

D. Warranty
The Company warrants that the equipment furnished for the Project will be new and of good quality, and shall be provided with the manufacturer's warranties as specified in the offer sheet.

E. The Agreement
By signing below, both parties confirm that they have reviewed and agreed to this Agreement and its attached annexes. The annexes contain the detailed terms covering payments, warranties, responsibilities, missed payments, system disconnection, equipment recovery, and other conditions applicable to the project.

Hello Solar will provide the Client with a copy of the signed Agreement and its annexes.

Notice: All data and information contained herein are commercially sensitive, proprietary, strictly confidential and shall be used solely by CLIENT for evaluating the terms and conditions of the Transaction. By receiving this Offer Sheet and Service Agreement ("OSSA") and notwithstanding its cancellation, expiry, or termination, CLIENT hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees and binds itself: (i) to safeguard and keep confidential the contents of this OSSA; and, (ii) not to disclose, or permit to be disclosed, directly or indirectly, any part of this document to any third party without the prior written consent of the COMPANY.

Annex A: Terms & Conditions

This Annex sets out the detailed terms governing the Client's installment arrangement with Hello Solar. It forms an integral part of the Service Agreement.

1. Payment Obligations

- The Client shall pay the down payment and monthly installments stated in the Service Agreement according to the agreed schedule.
- Payments shall be made through Hello Solar's designated payment channels. The Company shall issue appropriate receipts and maintain payment records.

2. Missed Payments and Default

- If the Client misses a scheduled payment, Hello Solar may issue a written notice identifying the overdue amount and charge a penalty fee for the delayed payment.
- First missed installment: Disconnection of System, written notice of the overdue payment
- Second consecutive missed installment: Written notice of the termination and warning of demobilization
- Third consecutive missed installment: Final notice, commencement of termination and demobilization of system
- The applicable notice periods, payment cure period, and consequences of default shall be administered in accordance with the Agreement and applicable law.

3. Equipment Ownership

Hello Solar retains ownership of the solar system until the Client has paid the full amount legally due under the Agreement. The Client shall not sell, transfer, pledge, dismantle, relocate, or authorize unauthorized alterations to the equipment without the Company's written consent.

Upon full payment of all amounts legally due, ownership shall automatically transfer to the Client without a separate buyout payment.

4. Consent to Demobilize and Equipment Recovery

In the event of default and termination of this Agreement, the Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that Hello Solar retains ownership of the Solar System and authorizes Hello Solar, its authorized representatives, or its designated contractors to arrange for the inspection, disconnection, dismantling, demobilization, and removal of the Solar System from the Client's property.

The Client expressly consents to such removal and agrees to provide reasonable access to the property at a mutually coordinated date and time, subject to reasonable prior written notice and applicable legal requirements.

5. Damage, Maintenance, and Repairs

The Client shall take reasonable care of the solar equipment and promptly report material damage, theft, tampering, or safety concerns. Where damage results from the Client's intentional or negligent actions, misuse, or unauthorized alteration, the Client may be responsible for reasonable, documented repair costs to the extent permitted by law.

Responsibility for ordinary wear and tear, equipment defects, weather-related damage, maintenance, and repairs shall be governed by the applicable warranty and service arrangements.

6. Electrical Work & Scope of Responsibility

- Scope of Responsibility. Hello Solar's responsibility for electrical work shall be limited to the work expressly included in the agreed project scope and performed by Hello Solar or its authorized installation partners.
- Pre-Existing Conditions and Excluded Work. Hello Solar shall not be responsible for pre-existing electrical defects, faulty or deteriorated wiring, improper grounding, defective breakers, or other electrical components and systems that are outside the agreed scope of work.
- Electrical Damage and Third-Party Work. Hello Solar shall not be responsible for electrical damage, faults, or losses arising from pre-existing conditions, unauthorized modifications, improper use, or work performed by third parties outside its agreed scope of work, except to the extent caused by Hello Solar's breach of contract, negligence, or defective installation.
- Applicable Law. Nothing in this section shall exclude or limit any liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited under applicable law.

7. Distribution Utility

The Client's relationship with the relevant distribution utility remains subject to that utility's rules and applicable law. The Client remains responsible for lawful charges imposed directly by the distribution utility. Hello Solar does not control the utility's billing, disconnection, reconnection, or other independent processes.

Notice: All data and information contained herein are commercially sensitive, proprietary, strictly confidential and shall be used solely by CLIENT for evaluating the terms and conditions of the Transaction. By receiving this Offer Sheet and Service Agreement ("OSSA") and notwithstanding its cancellation, expiry, or termination, CLIENT hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees and binds itself: (i) to safeguard and keep confidential the contents of this OSSA; and, (ii) not to disclose, or permit to be disclosed, directly or indirectly, any part of this document to any third party without the prior written consent of the COMPANY.

8. Customer Representation & Property Access

- The CUSTOMER confirms that the information supplied for the transaction and installation is, to the best of the CUSTOMER's knowledge, accurate and complete.
- The CUSTOMER confirms that the necessary consent for installation has been obtained from the property owner and any other person whose permission is legally required.
- The CUSTOMER shall notify HELLO SOLAR of any sale, lease, transfer, major renovation, or other change affecting the installation property that could materially affect the system or the rights described in this Agreement.
- Any future relocation of the system must be approved in writing by HELLO SOLAR during the payment term, subject to applicable law.
- Nothing in this Article creates a right to enter property without lawful authority or removes any right held by a landlord, property owner, mortgagee, or other third party.

9. Force Majeure & Unavoidable Delays

- The company shall not be liable for a delay caused by an event beyond its reasonable control, to the extent recognized by applicable law, provided that the company promptly informs the client and takes reasonable steps to mitigate the effects.
- Such events may include severe weather, natural disasters, government restrictions, major supply interruptions, or other comparable events beyond the company's reasonable control.

Annex B : Customer Requirements

This Annex records customer documentation requirements, property permissions, and privacy disclosures for the solar project.

1. Customer Requirements

The Client may be required to provide the following documents, as applicable to the project and payment arrangement:

- Proof of income, such as payslips for the previous three months or a recent bank statement, where required for assessment.
- Proof of property ownership or written authorization from the property owner.
- A valid lease agreement and any necessary landlord consent where the property is rented.
- Two valid government-issued IDs, where required.
- Other documents reasonably required for project approval or lawful administration, as disclosed to the Client.

2. Property Access and Permissions

- Property Access and Authorization. The Client confirms that they own the installation property or have obtained the necessary consent and authorization from the property owner or other authorized party.
- Cooperation and Access. The Client shall cooperate with reasonable site inspections, installation scheduling, and access arrangements agreed upon for the project.
- Permits and Approvals. Any required building, electrical, utility, or other permits and approvals shall be obtained by the party designated in the project scope, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Annex C: General Provisions

This Annex shall be read together with the Service Agreement and the other applicable annexes.

If any provision conflicts with a mandatory requirement of Philippine law, that legal requirement shall prevail. Any amendment must be documented in writing and accepted by both parties, subject to applicable law.

By signing below, the Parties confirm their agreement to the terms stated in this Agreement and its completed schedules, subject to applicable law.
